Secretary) 12/9/10

3 The first order of 24-11-08 seems to be somewhat ambiguous. The terms are, "the appointment being on probation for a year in the first place, subject to extension to three years, if the arrangement proves satisfactory at the end of that time"

The ambiguity arises from the fact that it is not clear whether the ~~phrase~~ word subject to extension. ~~quality~~ So with "appointment" as with "probation". With regard to the latter interpretation it is not quite clear why the arrangement is found at the end of a year, the trial should be continued for another two years. The former interpretation is supported by the wording of the last para of the Dewan's note to H.H. dt 3/11/1908 (page 43 of the note in Encl 127-08-09), wherein the recommendation made is that Mr Reddy may be appointed for a period of three years. This recommendation was modified in H.H. order dt 4-11-08 to the extent that one of the three years was to be on probation.

4 If this interpretation is correct Mr Reddy's present engagement is a temporary one for a period of three years & it is to be considered whether the engagement should be renewed for any further term or permanently. (Dewan through 2nd CR) CR 27/9/11
